Burning Desire

The EcoSmart Ghost from Smart Fire is fuelled by bio-ethanol which does not require a chimney or flue, meaning it can be placed in a wide range of areas in the home. Smart Fire UK / smartfireuk.com

DATES FOR THE DIARY

10-14.Mar.2015

ISH 2015, Frankfurt, Germany

The big biennial bathroom show returns with exhibitors and visitors from around the world. Energy efficiency and technology are among the key themes for the special features of the event which this year will be looking to exceed 2013's visitor total of over 180,000 along with more than 2,400 exhibitors. ISH / ish.messefrankfurt.com

Delphi 90cm cooker by Britannia Living, finished in blue and white stripes. Bespoke finishes available as part of its Colourange service. Britannia Living / britannialive.co.uk

Cloud Formation

The Cloud shower by Fima Carlo Frattini features two plates – the lower chrome plate is the showerhead which has upfacing LED lighting on its reverse whilst the larger white plate above reflects the light downwards. It is available in the UK from Alchemy Design Award. Alchemy Design Award / alchemyaward.com
